

MICHELLE EASLEY, ED.S., MBA, PMP

Meet Michelle

Michelle is a publisher, author, speaker, coach, entrepreneur and caring soul. She is the CEO of Positive Push Press and founder of Hope for Tomorrow International. She strives to share God's love and encourage people from all walks of life. Michelle has taken difficult encounters and used them to propel her to create books, webinars, trainings and narratives that are a part of solutions. In addition to publishing books, Michelle's company engages in developing, facilitating, and leading sessions for multinational corporations and organizations.

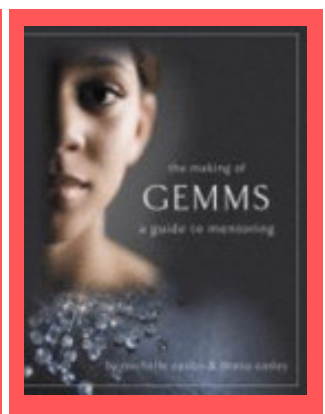

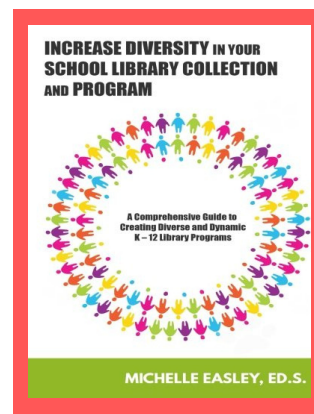

Positive Push Press publishes titles that support and grow inclusive, diverse environments. The company's mission is to empower people through words. Positive Push Press seeks to educate, inform, inspire and encourage all people.

Michelle is a native Atlantan and the daughter of a father who participated in the Atlanta Civil Rights Movement. Michelle received both a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Business Administration degree from Florida A&M University, a Master of Arts and Teaching degree from Emory University, and the Specialist in Education degree from Georgia State University. She is a certified project manager and holds the Certified in Cybersecurity Certification from ISC2.
